

Upcoming Programs from the URJ's REDI (Racial Equity, Diversity and Inclusion) Team:

Racial Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (REDI) 101

An introduction to core DEI concepts and practices. This foundational session will help participants start building stronger communities and transform the ways in which our institutions create meaningful Jewish experiences for people of all backgrounds.

Understanding the Impact of Whiteness & White Dominant Culture (3-part series)

A space for white Jewish/Jewish-Adjacent* people to engage in antiracist skill building, stamina, and resistance. A white antiracist affinity space is a space where white people process their emotions & deepen their understanding around race & racism, without burdening or causing additional harm to People of Color. “Jewish-Adjacent” refers to those of us who are not Jewish but are partnered with a Jew, part of a Jewish family, or interested in Judaism. the first session of this series is not an affinity space and is the same as the REDI 101 sessions on Oct 12th and Oct 15th*

Session 1: Oct 12th OR Oct 15th / Session 2: Oct 19th / Session 3: Oct 26th

Register for all 3 sessions: <https://urj.org/calendar/understanding-impact-whiteness-white-dominant-culture-space-white-jewishjewish-adjacent>

Jews of Color & Jewish Adjacent People of Color in the Reform Movement Affinity Space Gatherings

These gatherings are led by and for Jews of Color & People of Color who are Jewish Adjacent. Affinity spaces offer People of Color a safe space to have honest and open conversations, and to connect around their lived experiences, without having to comfort or teach White people about race & racism. “Jewish-Adjacent” refers to those of us who are not Jewish but are partnered with a Jew, part of a Jewish family, or interested in Judaism.)*
